

Follow up email after interview, no response: 15 to copy

Last checked 5 October 2026. Fill in the [BRACKETS] with your own facts.

The first follow up

A week after, with no date given

Subject: Following up: [JOB TITLE] interview on [DATE]

Hi [NAME],

Thank you again for talking with me on [DATE] about the [JOB TITLE] role. I am still very interested.

Could you tell me where things stand, and when you expect to decide? If you need anything more from me, I can send it today.

[YOUR NAME]

They gave a date and it has passed

Subject: Following up: [JOB TITLE]

Hi [NAME],

You said on [DATE] that you hoped to decide by [DATE]. I wanted to check whether the timing has changed. I am still interested in the role.

If there is anything I can send to help, tell me.

[YOUR NAME]

The shortest version

Subject: Checking in: [JOB TITLE]

Hi [NAME], a short note to say I am still keen on the [JOB TITLE] role. Is there an update?
Thank you. [YOUR NAME]

At different stages

After a phone screen

Subject: Following up: phone call on [DATE]

Hi [NAME], thank you for the call on [DATE] about the [JOB TITLE] role. I would like to hear what comes next, and whether I can help with anything. [YOUR NAME]

After the final interview

Subject: Following up: [JOB TITLE]

Hi [NAME], thank you for the time you and [NAMES] gave me on [DATE]. I enjoyed [ONE REAL THING DISCUSSED]. It has been [NUMBER] days. Is there an update on timing?

[YOUR NAME]

They said you would hear by Friday

Subject: Following up: [JOB TITLE]

Hi [NAME], you mentioned that I would hear by [DAY]. I have not yet, so I wanted to check that my email did not get lost. I am still interested. [YOUR NAME]

An internal role

Subject: Following up: [JOB TITLE] interview

Hi [NAME], thank you for the interview for [JOB TITLE] on [DATE]. I know it is a busy time. Could you tell me when you expect to decide, so I can plan my work? [YOUR NAME]

Who you write to

To the recruiter

Subject: [JOB TITLE] at [COMPANY]: any news?

Hi [NAME], I interviewed for [JOB TITLE] at [COMPANY] on [DATE]. I have not had an update. Could you tell me where things stand, or who I should ask? Thank you. [YOUR NAME]

To the hiring manager, when you only have their name

Subject: Following up: [JOB TITLE]

Hi [NAME], I know recruiters usually tell me the news, so I am sorry to write to you. I wanted to say I am still keen on [JOB TITLE] and I am glad to answer anything else. [YOUR NAME]

A short message on a work network

Hi [NAME], thank you for talking with me on [DATE] about [JOB TITLE]. If you have news on timing, I would be glad to hear it.

A voicemail

Hello [NAME], this is [YOUR NAME]. I interviewed with you on [DATE] for [JOB TITLE]. I am calling to see whether there is any news, and to say I am still interested. My number is [NUMBER]. Thank you.

A second note, and the last one

With something new

Subject: Following up: [JOB TITLE]

Hi [NAME], since we spoke I [ADD IF TRUE: FINISHED / READ / TRIED / LEARNED] [ONE REAL THING RELATED TO THE ROLE]. I thought it might help you. I am still keen on the job. [YOUR NAME]

Another offer has a deadline

Subject: [JOB TITLE]: a deadline

Hi [NAME], [ADD IF TRUE: I HAVE AN OFFER FROM ANOTHER COMPANY THAT NEEDS AN ANSWER BY [DATE].] [JOB TITLE] at [COMPANY] is still my first choice. Could you tell me where you are in your process before then? [YOUR NAME]

The last note

Subject: Closing the loop: [JOB TITLE]

Hi [NAME], since I have had no reply, I will assume you have gone another way. Thank you for your time. If anything changes, I would still be glad to hear from you. [YOUR NAME]

When a no finally comes

Subject: Re: [JOB TITLE]

Hi [NAME], thank you for letting me know. If you can, I would be grateful for one line on what would have made my interview stronger. Either way, thank you. [YOUR NAME]

<https://proskillpacks.github.io/work/follow-up-email-after-an-interview-with-no-response/>

More free pages: <https://proskillpacks.github.io/work/>