Four basic emails

Starting from their website

Subject: [THE THING YOU SAW, IN THEIR WORDS]

Hi [FIRST NAME],

On [PAGE] I saw that [ONE FACT FROM THEIR PAGE]. I [WHAT YOU DO] for [TYPE OF COMPANY].

Would it help if I sent [ONE SPECIFIC THING], or is this not a priority at [COMPANY]?

[YOUR NAME]

[YOUR POSTAL ADDRESS]

If you would rather I did not write again, tell me and I will stop.

Starting from news about them

Subject: Your [NEWS ITEM]

Hi [FIRST NAME],

I read that [COMPANY] [WHAT HAPPENED, WITH WHERE YOU READ IT]. I [WHAT YOU DO] for [TYPE OF COMPANY].

If [RELATED TASK] is on your list, I can send [ONE SPECIFIC THING]. If not, no problem.

[YOUR NAME]

[YOUR POSTAL ADDRESS]

If you would rather I did not write again, tell me and I will stop.

Starting from a question

Subject: How does [COMPANY] handle [TASK]?

Hi [FIRST NAME],

How does [COMPANY] handle [TASK] today? I ask because I [YOUR TRUE REASON, FOR EXAMPLE: HELP [TYPE OF COMPANY] WITH IT].

If it is worth a short call, tell me a day that suits you. If not, a one-word answer is fine.

[YOUR NAME]

[YOUR POSTAL ADDRESS]

If you would rather I did not write again, tell me and I will stop.

When someone suggested you write

Subject: [PERSON] suggested I write

Hi [FIRST NAME],

[PERSON] at [COMPANY] suggested I write to you about [TOPIC]. [PERSON] and I [HOW YOU KNOW EACH OTHER].

I [WHAT YOU DO]. Would [ONE SPECIFIC THING] be useful to you?

[YOUR NAME]

[YOUR POSTAL ADDRESS]

If you would rather I did not write again, tell me and I will stop.

By who you write to

To the owner of a small company

Subject: A question about [AREA] at [COMPANY]

Hi [FIRST NAME],

I saw that [COMPANY] [SOMETHING YOU SAW, FOR EXAMPLE A NEW SERVICE OR A JOB AD]. Who handles [AREA] when the team is small: you, or someone else?

I help [TYPE OF COMPANY] with [ONE SPECIFIC JOB]. If it is you, I can send two lines on how it works.

[YOUR NAME]

To a head of operations

Subject: [PROCESS] at [COMPANY]

Hi [FIRST NAME],

Teams like [COMPANY] often lose time on [PROCESS]. I do not know if that is true for you. Is it?

If it is, I can show you how [CUSTOMER TYPE] handled it in [TIME]. If not, I will not trouble you again.

[YOUR NAME]

To a head of marketing

Subject: Your [CAMPAIGN OR PAGE] from [MONTH]

Hi [FIRST NAME],

I read your [CAMPAIGN OR PAGE] from [MONTH]. I liked [ONE SPECIFIC THING]. One idea: [ONE SPECIFIC SUGGESTION YOU CAN BACK UP].

I work on [YOUR AREA]. Would a short call help you test that idea?

[YOUR NAME]

By what you want

Asking for a 15 minute call

Subject: 15 minutes about [TOPIC]?

Hi [FIRST NAME],

I would like 15 minutes to ask how [COMPANY] handles [TASK]. I am not selling on the call. I want to know if what I make fits your work.

Would [DAY] at [TIME] or [DAY] at [TIME] suit you?

[YOUR NAME]

Offering a free sample

Subject: A sample for [COMPANY]

Hi [FIRST NAME],

I made a short [SAMPLE, FOR EXAMPLE A CHECKLIST OR A MOCK-UP] for [COMPANY] about [TOPIC]. It is free and there is no catch.

Shall I send it? If it is useful, we can talk. If not, keep it.

[YOUR NAME]

Asking who decides

Subject: Who decides on [AREA] at [COMPANY]?

Hi [FIRST NAME],

I am not sure you are the right person. Who decides on [AREA] at [COMPANY]? A name is enough.

I will say you pointed me to them only if you say that is fine.

[YOUR NAME]

When they use a tool you work with

Subject: [TOOL] at [COMPANY]

Hi [FIRST NAME],

I saw that [COMPANY] uses [TOOL]. People who use it often tell me [A COMMON

PROBLEM YOU HAVE HEARD FROM CUSTOMERS]. Does that sound familiar?

I help with that. If it does not apply, tell me and I will leave you alone.
