

Performance review comments for teamwork: 24 examples by rating and situation (2026)

Last checked 5 October 2026. Fill in the [BRACKETS] with your own facts.

Exceeds what the role needs

Helps colleagues without being asked: for example, [WHAT THEY DID AND FOR WHOM].

Shares what they know and teaches others: for example, [WHAT THEY TAUGHT].

Steadies the team when things are tense: for example, [THE SITUATION].

Gives others credit for their work: for example, [WHEN THEY DID THIS].

Meets what the role needs

Works well with the team day to day: for example, [A RECENT PIECE OF TEAMWORK].

Does their share of the work: for example, [TASK].

Helps others when asked: for example, [THE CASE].

Takes part in team meetings and listens to other views: for example, [MEETING].

Below what the role needs

Tends to work alone, and the team has missed their input: for example, [PROJECT].

Has not yet shared information that colleagues needed: for example, [WHAT AND WHEN].

Disagreements with [COLLEAGUE OR TEAM] have slowed the work: for example, [WHAT HAPPENED]. We agreed [WHAT].

Some tasks have been left for others: for example, [TASK AND WHO DID IT].

Sharing the work

Exceeds

Offers to take on part of a colleague's workload when the team is stretched, and tells me so I can plan: for example, [WHAT THEY TOOK ON AND WHEN].

Meets

Does their share of shared tasks and says early when they cannot: for example, [SHARED TASK].

Below

Shared tasks have sometimes been left for others to finish, without a word beforehand: for example, [TASK AND DATE].

Below

Keeps work to themselves until it is finished, so others cannot help or plan around it: for example, [PROJECT].

Working through a disagreement

Exceeds

Raises a disagreement calmly and with facts, then supports the team's decision: for example, [DISAGREEMENT AND OUTCOME].

Meets

Listens to other views and says what they think in a respectful way: for example, [DISCUSSION].

Below

Has argued a point in front of the whole team when a private word first would have worked better: for example, [MEETING].

Below

Did not tell the team when they changed their mind on a joint decision, which caused rework: for example, [DECISION].

New joiners and handovers

Exceeds

Gave [NEW COLLEAGUE] a clear start, including [WHAT THEY SHARED]: for example, [WHEN].

Meets

Writes down handover notes before going on leave: for example, [HANDOVER].

Below

Handover notes were missing when they went on leave, so the team had to find out [WHAT]: for example, [DATE].

Below

Credit for shared work has left out some contributors. I would like everyone who helped to be named: for example, [PROJECT].
